Turin, November 4, N. S.

THE Armies in the Riviera continue in the ſame Poſts which they were in by our Advices of the 28th paſt, without any Thing's having been attempted either on the one Side or the other. The French have made a Motion to their Left, towards Saorgio, but it is thought here, more with a View to cover their Convoys from Nice againſt the Incurſions of our Troops in thoſe Parts, than to gain Ground; and it is affirm'd by ſome, that M. de Belleiſle could not well attempt it, without expoſing himſelf to the greateſt Hazards, as Baron Leutrum was ſo advantageouſly poſted for receiving him in a proper Manner. The ſame Preparations for advancing have however been ſtill carried on till now by the French; though we have, within theſe two Days, had ſome Intelligence from that Quarter, as if it was thought that the French General begins to think of withdrawing his Troops, and putting them into Winter Quarters; it being aſſured, that the Infant Don Philip was preparing to ſet out for Montpelier, where that Prince is to paſs the inactive Seaſon; and that M. Belleiſle and the Duke of Modena were to depart about the ſame Time for Paris. We hear from Savona, that General Newhaus was arrived there in his Way to Baron Leutrum's Army with a Reinforcement of 1200 Men. The Imperial Troops are all gathering in the Parmeſan, which alarms the Genoeſe.

Copenhagen, Nov. 18. M. Panin, the new Envoy from the Empreſs of Ruſſia, had Yeſterday his firſt Audience of the King of Denmark, and preſented his Letters of Credence in the uſual Manner.

Hague, November, 21, N. S. The States of Holland publiſhed this Day their Reſolutions of the 11th and 16th inſtant, relating to the Diſpoſal of Civil Employments, and to the Succeſſion to the Stadtholderſhip. By the firſt, it is reſolved, That no Employments ſhall be given for the Future, to thoſe who do not exerciſe them themſelves, and that whoever accepts of a Place, ſhall be obliged to diſcharge the Functions of it. Secondly, That for the Time to come, no Place whatever ſhall be quartered upon, and that it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon, either Regents or others, to give or receive Money, or any other Conſideration, for procuring or receiving an Employment; to prevent which, they are for the Future to be put to their Oath. Thirdly, That theſe Articles ſhall be obſerved as a perpetual Law, and that all Perſons intruſted with an Office, ſhall ſwear to the Performance of them, before they can begin to diſcharge the Functions of their Employments; and in order to enable the States to make the neceſſary Regulations with Regard to the Diſpoſal of them, the Burgo-Maſters and Regents of the ſeveral Towns, ſhall draw up, and deliver to their High Mightineſſes, Liſts of all the Offices and Employments in the Diſpoſal of their reſpective Colleges, from the higheſt to the loweſt, with an exact Account of the Salaries and Perquiſites belonging to them, and of all the Out-goings attach'd to them, either by way of Quarterage or otherwiſe; and no Employments are to be excepted from theſe Regulations, but thoſe poſſeſſed by Artificers and Labourers. By the other Reſolution, relating to the Hereditary Succeſſion, it is enacted, That the Stadtholderſhip ſhall deſcend, after the Prince of Orange's Death, to his lawful Male Iſſue, and their Heirs Male; and in Caſe his Highneſs's Male Children ſhould die without any Male Iſſue, the Stadtholderſhip is to devolve upon the eldeſt Daughter, and her Male Iſſue, if there ſhould be any; but in Default of Heirs Male, and in Caſe the Prince of Orange ſhould have no Sons, then the Stadtholderſhip goes to his Highneſs's Daughter the Princeſs Caroline and her Male Iſſue; and if ſhe dies without any, it is to devolve upon her ſurviving Siſters, and their Heirs Male; the eldeſt Siſter, and her Iſſue, to be always preferred: The ſaid Dignity is never to be poſſeſſed by any King or Elector, nor by any Prince that does not profeſs the Proteſtant Religion, as by Law eſtabliſh'd in this Country; and in Caſe the Stadtholderſhip ſhould ever deſcend to a Prince or Princeſs under Age, they are to be educated within the Province of Holland; and this Settlement of the Succeſſion, on the Deſcendants of the Female Iſſue, is not to take Place, unleſs the ſaid Female Heirs marry with the eſpecial Conſent and Approbation of the States. —— It is likewiſe enacted, that in Caſe the ſaid Dignity ſhould devolve on a Princeſs, ſhe ſhall enjoy it, with the Title of Gouvernante, and have her Seat in the States, and in all the Colleges, in the ſame Manner as the Stadtholders: And as ſhe is to be inveſted with all the Authority annexed to the Dignity of Captain and Admiral General, ſhe is to appoint, in Time of War, an able Commander, of the Proteſtant Religion, but of no Kingly or Electoral Dignity, to head the Troops in her Stead; and he is to take Oath, to follow follow and obey the Inſtructions and Orders which ſhall be given him by the States. And as the Stadtholderſhip may devolve to a Minor, then the Princeſs his Mother ſhall, during his Minority, act as Guardian, with the Title of Gouvernante, and enjoy all the Privileges annexed to it, till the Minor is of Age; but if ſhe ſhould die, or marry again, then the States are to ſupply that Guardianſhip, in the Manner they ſhall think moſt advantageous for this Country. And laſtly, The Succeſſors to the Stadtholderſhip are always to have the ſame Commiſſion and Inſtructions as have been given by this Province to the preſent Stadtholder.

Hague, Nov. 24, N. S. A ſolemn Deputation of the States of Holland, compoſed of one Member from the Nobles, and one from every Town, and the Penſionary, waited laſt Wedneſday upon the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, and the Princeſs Caroline, to compliment their Highneſſes upon the Reſolution taken the 16th Inſtant by the States of this Province, relating to the Hereditary Succeſſion. Count Maurice of Naſſau was appointed Yeſterday by the Prince of Orange, to command, during this Winter, all the Troops in Zealand, and he is now preparing to ſet out with all poſſible Speed for that Province. Major General Lewe was promoted Yeſterday to the Rank of Lieutenant General.
